

Palace & Temples

A half day excursion from purity by car visiting build-up history.

Rate: 4500 INR | 70 EURO for a maximum of 3 people

Krishna Puram Palace is 70 km south of purity.

Built in the 18th century by the Travancore maharajas, the palace is famous for its woodwork...

... and mural paintings. It is also home of a museum on regional history.

The Mannarashala temple is dedicated to the snake worship.

Owned privately by an ancestor family, the priest or poojari is a lady.

Ambalappuzha Sree Krishna Temple, 30 km south of purity,

It is a large and lively place of Hindu worship.

The temple complex is surrounded by a complex of palaces, all dedicated to Lord Krishna.

Make a request